EDUCATION

10/2016 - present
Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński University in Warsaw part-time studies at the faculty of psychology.

I'm a Psychology student and also an aspiring Front-End Developer.

I have started with watching YouTube channel, where I could learn basics like HTML and CSS. Now I'm learning JavaScript and I'm constantly extending my knowledge and improving my programming skills. I'm currently taking part in a Bootcamp course at Akademia108. My skills are improving on a daily basis and this gives me great satisfaction.
